COVENANT

Adam had a personal covenant with God. He communed daily. Conversation with a special personable relationship.

Disobedience caused Adam and future generations a reduction in relationship.

To return to covenant, the shedding of blood was necessary. Not blood of animals. A Holy, perfect blood was necessary.

God sent His son, Jesus.

Jesus' sacrifice on the cross, took all sin upon Himself. This made a way back to the Father. Acceptance, by faith in Jesus, made the Covenant available.

We have to confess with our mouth and believe in our heart that Jesus is Lord and Savior.

Our path is laid before us. Be obedient to God's purpose.

Our fleshly nature, leads us to the love of other circumstances and mammon.

God, in His infinite wisdom, allows us to choose whom and what we serve. He only wants people who want the covenant relationship.

Over the years, there have been revivals of the soul and healing of physical bodies.

We have seen the effects of revival. It hasn't continued in every one who experienced it. A very apostate church is what we see today.

My concern is this cleansing will be temporary and partial. Unless there is repentance and return back to God.

God has been preparing the last revival (ingathering) as His final presentation. He's bringing people back into covenant.

Healing & restoration of the Holy Spirit accomplished in those willing to submit to His presence and power.

Don't feed the fleshly nature. Mesmerized by repetitions. Don't negate the Holy Spirit's presence and subjugate the anointing. Screaming in frenzy, relishing in the "feeling" of the flesh. Mistaking the flesh for God's anointing.

You can't place new wine in old wineskins. Don't rely on past experiences. Have a fresh new presence and move of the Holy Spirit in your life.

There has already been Churches who have withdrawn from the Holy Spirit.

THE LAST REVIVAL (Ingathering)

In the summer of 1992, I was lead, by the Spirit of God, with two Christian friends, to go down to the Daphne Pier shore.

We made a small wooden cross and anointed it with oil. We held it in the lapping waves of the bay. Praying in tongues, we planted the cross in the sandy shore.

Later shown to me, this act fulfilled a dream concerning the last revival. The dream showed the brackish brown color of the bay changing to a blood red. Starting on the Daphne shore, then filling the entire Bay; then into the Gulf of Mexico, eventually touching the whole world for Christ's sake.
