"Prophet in Overalls #25"

The LAST REVIVAL - finally

I see all these fires of revival flare-up over the United States in various places and in other countries. Each one saying look at us, here is the real revival.

In the Jewish paradigm, a Rabbi is calling forth the healing virtue, by blowing a shofar and allowing healing to occur.

If there is any sin in people bringing forth God's revival, they must first repent and ask forgiveness.

The word says in Mat 5:24 : Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

Whatever gift given must be with a pure heart. If there is sin in the hearts of churches now feeling the urge for revival, a pure heart is required. Their efforts will fall to the ground if wrong motives, attitudes and hearts.

Too long the church has played games, comfortable in its man-made piety. Pampering those itchy ears of the congregation instead of teaching the whole Word in context.

People bringing forth the revival have to remain Holy in God's sight, for him to move in their midst. If there's any sin including: taking advantage of people, controlling people, lying to people for personal gain, thinking they are better than others. The forgiveness has to be offered to those harmed.

A definite repentance; going to love people and asking for forgiveness is the only way. God will then accept the offering. Revival in individuals, churches and organizations may then come into being.

The Lord reminds me about his Holiness. His way is far above our thinking. Obedience to the entire Word is the only path to God's purpose.

In Luke 6:32 missing the mark: For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

Luke 6:33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

The pride of man seeks acceptance from the to-be-seen man. The only reality is acceptance and submission to God's way.

The Holiness required of the Last Revival is repentance first then restoration to God.

Red Sea Visitation.

The Bay of the Holy Spirit sign is mounted on the breakwater, at the intersection of I-10 and the causeway. The sign is seen from the water and the land on public property. Honoring the explorers who named it.

The morning of June 14, 2008 had a down-pour of rain so heavy you couldn't see your hand in front of your face.

Aloud I said, " God we are going to dedicate your sign no matter what the weather "

When we got to the sign, the sun was shining, a gentle breeze and hot temperature.

Looking to the Eastern Shore had rain forming a wall of water. On the Mobile side a similar wall of water. It looked as if the sea had parted. The dedication would take place in the sunny center of the storm and activity would be completed.

Similar to the parting of the Red Sea, the Jewish nation walked through on dry land.

Once they had completed the journey, the water came crashing down on the enemy who had been pursuing.

Completion of the dedication with the blowing of the Shofar to close the assemblage. The rain started to seal the miracle as we were leaving.

Now there is a gate honoring the Holy Spirit. God has placed this anointing here for His purpose. The hurricanes don't touch the area. When there was an oil spill, there was no damage to the Bay of the Holy Spirit..

There will be more manifestation of His purpose, to come. Eventually it will lead up to the last Ingathering

We do have water baptisms in the Bay of the Holy Spirit. Let us know if you're interested and sign up on line. If enough people, we'll do it before the weather turns too cool.

PRAY FOR THE PEACE OF JERUSALEM
