Revelation 2

My children why do you reject my mercy?

Turning back onto your old ways, always seeking the flesh.

You know the deception and still you return to its pull on you.

It has been exposed and still you worship at the altar of your soul.

Your screaming and gyrations are of no effect on my plan for you, they only feed your flesh.

Being taught by naive adults, never encompassing your place in my plan for you.

Time to grow up, and move as the cloud and fire moved for My purpose.

I am always providing the direction of eternal victory.

Your actions, not your words are what you are!
